

The posting of workers within road transport sector in the EU

The enforcement of Directive 96/71/EC: open issues and concrete actions to support administrative cooperation

23rd November 2011 (14:30- 17:45)

at the European Economic and Social Committee

Rue Belliard 99 - 1040 Brussels (Room n. JDE 63)

European Economic and Social Committee

Employers' Group

With the support of:

EUROPEAN UNION

European Commission, DG Employment, Social Affairs and Equal Opportunities

The event is to follow up and to debate about the enforcement of Directive 96/71/EC on posting of workers in the road transport sector and, specifically, about how to enhance administrative cooperation among institutions involved in controls.

The seminar is addressed to institutions, stakeholders and social partners, researchers, experts in the field of labour, social policies and transport law.

The event is part of the TRANSPO project (Road transport sector and posting of workers) a pilot initiative to support the application of the Directive 96/71/EC on posting of workers in the road transport sector. The project is co-funded by the European Commission (DG Employment, Social Affairs and Equal Opportunities) within the Call for Proposal VP/2010/011 (contract ref. VS/2010/0624). The TRANSPO project has been carried out by a partnership among the French Ministry of Labour (DG Travail), the Italian Ministry of Labour (DG Inspection Activities and DG Labour Market) and the Romanian Labour Inspection and coordinated by Istituto Guglielmo Tagliacarne (a foundation of the Italian Union of the Chambers of Commerce). The project has been aimed at enhancing administrative cooperation through awareness seminars and working groups involving labour inspectors and other institutions in charge of controls. TRANSPO has also worked on a "Guide on controls within posting of workers in the road transport sector".

The participation is free of charge.
